SOCIAL MEDICINE COURSE 2012
Community, National, and Global Perspectives

Jan 3* - Separate and Unequal: Medical Care in New York and the Nation - David Himmelstein, MD
   *Opening Session Tuesday @ 5:30 in Price Center, followed by reception
Jan 11 - An Introduction to Social Medicine - Matt Anderson, MD, MSc
Jan 18 - Dialectics of Caring for Prisoners - Bobby Cohen, MD
Jan 25 - What Do We Owe Our Veterans? Moral and Clinical Perspectives - Adam Fried, PhD
Feb 1 - Harm Reduction and Hepatitis C in the South Bronx - Donald Davis
Feb 8 - Doctor-Patient Partnership: Where does integrative medicine come into play? -
   Baswathi Bhattacharya, MPH, MD, HHC; Benjamin Kligler, MD, MPH; Felise Milan, MD
Feb 15 - Ibogaine Assisted Addiction Therapy- Screening of “I’m Dangerous with Love” followed by Q&A -
   Dimitri Mugianis and director Michel Negroponte
Feb 29 - Liberation Medicine - Lanny Smith, MD, MPH, DTM&H 7:00 pm
Mar 7 - Health of Asylum Seekers and Caring for Torture Victims - Ramin Asgary, MD, MPH
Mar 14 - Grassroots Organizing: AID for AIDS - Diana Ramirez, MD
Mar 20 - For the People’s Health: The Young Lords and the Fight for Dignified Healthcare in New York in the 60s - Johanna Fernandez, PhD  TUESDAY
Mar 28 - Women’s Health - Marji Gold, MD
Apr 4 - Panel Discussion: Palliative Care and Social Justice: Lessons From Providing Palliative Care to Underserved Populations - Peter Selwyn, MD, MPH
Apr 19 - Urban food environments: potential implications for community nutrition and health -
   Sean Lucan, MD, MPH  THURSDAY
Apr 25 - Bioethics of Lethal Injection - Mark Heath, MD

◆ WEDNESDAYS @ 5:30 ◆ DINNER PROVIDED ◆ FIFTH FLOOR LECTURE HALL
◆ ORGANIZED BY STUDENTS, OPEN TO ALL◆
FOR QUESTIONS OR KOSHER MEAL REQUESTS, CONTACT BRETT WOLFSON-STOFKO - BRETT.WOLFSON-STOFKO@PHD.EINSTEIN.YU.EDU